

Ulonda D. Drayton

Life Navigator/Empowerment Speaker/Author

*"Her presence places a demand on your attention! When she's speaking you will be in absolute awe. Her power of perception influences how you see things! A chain of bondage will be broken while listening to her."
- Renee Richardson | Beyond the Crossroad Community*

Empowerment and Passion are the two ingredients that fuel Ulonda D. Drayton. Whenever she steps on any platform, her mission is to empower and inspire women to embrace who they are authentically so that they can live a life of purpose on purpose! With this passion, she wrote her first book, "Navigate Your Life", she's been speaking to audiences for years on various platforms such as the "Starry Night Premiere Gala" hosted by IndieKater, LLC., "Recipe for the Best You" conference hosted by US, LLC., "Women of Promise" women's ministry group once a month as the Director and "Project HOPE" Graduation among various women's conferences, seminars and programs she's hosted for her "Beyond the Crossroad" community of close to 500 ladies. She's also featured in "Grace Magazine", "Women of Fruit Magazine" and "Focus on Fabulous Magazine" empowering women through the pages. She is a force to be reckoned with when it comes to pouring out and into the lives of women ready and hungry for all their heart desires! She's the perfect speaker for your upcoming event.

"I've discovered that women either did not know their purpose or were trying to avoid it because of fear which is the culprit for all other obstacles in their lives. I help women uncover the power and authority they have by learning to blend their passion with purpose. No longer will they live an unfulfilled, average life in that dead end job or draining relationship or feeling like they're not good enough or worthy of better.", says Ulonda.

Signature Presentations:
